Fiserv Announces Vice President of Sales for Latin America, Caribbean and Canada for Signature Bank Platform

Leading global provider of financial services technology solutions confirms ongoing commitment to these regions

Brookfield, Wis., April 2, 2009 - Fiserv, Inc. (NASDAQ: FISV), the leading global provider of financial services technology solutions, announced today that Rene Salazar has joined the company as vice president of sales for the Signature Bank Platform for Latin America, Caribbean and Canada. In this role, Salazar will be responsible for relationship management for current customers, as well as revenue generation activities associated with new clients. His team will manage business development activities for the Signature Bank Platform in Canada, the Caribbean and across Central and South America.

"Fiserv is truly committed to its financial services clients and prospects in Canada, Caribbean and Latin America. We have the expertise, resources and scale to lead transformation in these regions," said James Fisher, managing director of Latin America, Caribbean, and Canada, Bank Solutions at Fiserv. "With Rene, we are adding a proven, successful leader who complements our existing team and will help us to execute on our plans for long-term success in these parts of the world."

Rene joins Fiserv after four and a half years at EDS, an HP Company, where he served in various managing roles. As part of EDS, Rene was responsible for financial services sales, private sector sales, as acting director and most recently as the sales support director for EDS Mexico. In addition to his time at EDS, Rene has more than 20 years of experience with financial services institutions and leading edge technology management firms such as HP Consulting, Ariba Inc., BBVA Bancomer and Banamex in Mexico.

"Fiserv partners with our clients to provide best-in-class, customized solutions to meet their individual business needs and goals. We look forward to applying Rene's experience to counsel clients on how to capture growth opportunities in Canada, the Caribbean and across Central and South America," said Fisher. "Rene's proven experience leading sales and sales support groups, combined with his experience working with and for financial services institutions, is a strong fit with the growth, transformational opportunities, and needs of the dynamic, emerging markets in these regions."
