Fiserv Thought Leaders to Discuss Future of Managed Accounts Industry at Money Management Institute Conference

Cheryl Nash and Walter Loiselle from Fiserv to focus on UMAs, UMHs and real-time processing at annual industry conference

Brookfield, Wis., September 9, 2009 - Fiserv, Inc. (NASDAQ: FISV), the leading global provider of financial services technology solutions, today announced that Cheryl Nash, senior vice president of Strategic Marketing and Business Development for Investment Services at Fiserv and Walter Loiselle, senior vice president of Customer Operations and Information Technology for Investment Services at Fiserv, will speak at the Money Management Institute's (MMI) annual Technology and Operations Conference. The conference will be held on September 15 at the Westin Hotel in Jersey City, N.J.

Nash, also the co-chair of MMI's Technology and Operations Committee, will discuss how asset managers, sponsors and managed solutions technology and outsourcing providers, are using innovation to drive evolution in both unified managed account (UMA) platforms and the unified managed household (UMH) platforms. She will also speak to how the UMH platform will play a big role in the future of the managed accounts industry.

Loiselle will discuss integration for real-time processing. In particular, Loiselle will focus on message communications and how existing systems and processes will change in a message-enabled world.

"This year's MMI's Technology and Operations Conference is focused on the issues that are top of mind for Fiserv clients," said Nash. "We look forward to discussing and providing insight into these pressing issues with other industry leaders."

"This year has been turbulent for managed account industry professionals," said Loiselle. "At Fiserv we look forward to discussing strategies and providing solutions to face and succeed despite today's challenges."

The MMI Technology and Operations Conference is an annual conference that brings together MMI member firms to promote strategic discussions with peers on pressing industry topics in the managed accounts industry. Investment Services from Fiserv will be exhibiting at the conference.
