Fiserv Names Robert Hau as Chief Financial Officer

BROOKFIELD, Wis.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Fiserv, Inc. (NASDAQ: FISV), a leading global provider of financial services technology solutions, today announced that Robert Hau will join the company as chief financial officer on March 14, 2016.

Hau's professional background includes nearly 30 years of progressive business and financial leadership roles. He most recently served as executive vice president and chief financial officer of TE Connectivity Ltd. (NYSE:TEL), a $12 billion global product technology company that designs and manufactures connectivity and sensor solutions for a variety of industries. Prior to joining TE Connectivity, Hau served as executive vice president and chief financial officer for Lennox International Inc. (NYSE: LII), and also spent 22 years at Honeywell International Inc. in a variety of progressive leadership roles, including as chief financial officer of its Aerospace Business Group, Specialty Materials Business Group and Aerospace Electronic Systems Unit.

"Bob's proven track record as a public company CFO along with his strong operational approach to finance will complement our management team very well," said Jeffery Yabuki, President and Chief Executive Officer, Fiserv. "We are excited to welcome him to Fiserv."

Hau holds a master's degree in business administration from the USC Marshall School of Business and a bachelor's degree in business administration from Marquette University.

Hau succeeds Tom Hirsch, who is retiring after a distinguished 21-year career with Fiserv. Hirsch was named chief financial officer in 2006 and will continue through the year as a special consultant to the company.

"We are grateful to Tom for his leadership and contributions to our clients, associates and shareholders. We wish him and his family success in the next chapter of their lives," said Yabuki.
